any advice? she was an emergency c-section, 4 years ago and was formula fed with colic and a horrible sleeper with occasional bed wetting still after being potty trained for 2 years.

It seems like some of the text within your posts are running off the screen.

For everyone housing is at the forefront of the national agenda for delivery and the government is taking...